FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Stacy Sun Participates in the BOAO Forum for Asia Annual Conference 2007

Hainan, China, April 19-22, 2007: The Asia Pacific-USA Chamber of Commerce (APUCC) is pleased to announce that Stacy Sun, Chairman and CEO of APUCC, attended the BOAO Forum for Asia's (BFA) Annual Conference 2007. As BFA states, "The annual conference of BFA is a platform for international and Asian political leaders, businessmen and academic scholars, to communicate and seek cooperation for the common good and development of Asian countries." This premier event will highlight the growing role Asia is playing in the world economy; the theme for the conference is, appropriately, "Asia Winning in Today's Global Economy—Innovation & Sustainable Development."

The BOAO Forum for Asia has invited many distinguished leaders in business, as well as a number of high-level government officials. Some of the business delegates include Bill Gates, Chairman of Microsoft Corporation, Kevan Watts, Chairman of Merrill Lynch, and Wang Jianzhou, Chairman of China Mobile. High-level government officials at the event include Wu Bangguo, Chairman of the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress, China, Gloria Macapagal Arroyo, President, the Philippines, and Edmund Ho Hau Wah, Chief Executive of Macao SAR.

Such a conference as the BOAO Forum for Asia provides an unparalleled opportunity to network with some of the Asia's most influential business and government leaders. Over 1,300 delegates, speakers, and guests were present at the BFA Annual Conference.

About APUCC:
Asia Pacific - USA Chamber of Commerce (www.apucc.org) is a non-profit organization established to promote free trade and economic development between the United States and China. Our mission is to facilitate multinational networking that helps our members successfully understand and compete in the US-China marketplace through high quality conferences, trade missions and other member services.

* * *

For more information, please contact John Hanna, APUCC, (626) 795-9486 or (jhanna@apucc.org)