

Biotechnology Development Park of Beijing Economic and Technological Development Area

Bio-Tech and pharmaceuticals is one of Beijing Economic and Technological Development Area's pillar sectors. By the end of 2006, there are more than 130 pharmaceuticals, medical device manufacturers, and bio-tech companies in BDA, such as the big names Bayer, Aventis, Daichi, GE Medical, Varian, and the local big brand "Tongrentang".

Year 2006 saw a significant achievement in this field: the turnover reached approximately USD130 million. The turnover and profits produced by BDA accounts for 40% of the total in Beijing in terms of the pharmaceutical sector. The turnover and profits in BDA contribute to 80% of the total in Beijing at the sector of medical device manufacturing.
